

Quick Facts – Alberta Lottery Fund

(October 2014)

The Alberta Lottery Fund

- The Alberta Lottery Fund (ALF) is the government's share of net proceeds from video lottery terminals, casino gaming terminals, electronic bingo and ticket lotteries.
- The Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission (AGLC) generates revenue for the ALF through its conduct and management of provincial gaming activities.
- In 2013-2014, nearly $1.5 billion went into the ALF.
- The use of lottery dollars is transparent, as ALF expenditures are voted on in the Legislature. Supported programs, projects and foundations are administered by various ministries.

ALF – 2014-2015 Budget Estimates

Casino Gaming Terminals.....	909 million
(includes electronic bingo)
Video Lottery Terminals .....	504 million
Lottery Fund Interest .....	3 million
Subtotal	$1.42 billion
Less AGLC operating expenses	(230 million)
Add Net Income from WCLC	300 million
TOTAL	$1.49 billion

ALF Initiatives

Thousands of volunteer, public and community-based initiatives are funded annually. Examples include:

- community facilities
- libraries and museums
- sports and athletic events
- agricultural societies
- arts and culture groups
- wildlife and conservation projects
- public athletic facilities
- seniors' groups
- recreation, tourism and historical resources

Types of public initiatives funded include:

- infrastructure projects
- school and health facility construction
- post secondary facility construction
- addiction prevention and treatment programs

For examples of projects funded by ALF or details on specific ministry allocations, visit albertalotteryfund.ca